

The Story. Matthew 2:1-23

How to miss the Christ of Christmas.

- Have a wrong understanding of who you are.
Micah 6:8
- Let fear guide you. Matthew 19:20-22; Proverbs 29:25
- Let emotions control you. Proverbs 29:22-23

The Christmas story is a choice for every participant.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8; Jeremiah 24:14-15; John 15:9-17

Your choice of Christ may or may not change your circumstance, but it will change you in your circumstance.

Share Your Christmas story

Take some time to share with us your Christmas story, God can use it to encourage and inspire others. Your story may be the one God has prepared for someone in our community that needs a lift.

You can drop it in the baskets at the door or email our social media coordinator at laura@seekreallife.com.

Here are some starter questions to get you going:

1. What is a fond Christmas memory?
2. How has meeting Christ changed your life?
3. What is a difficulty God has helped you overcome?
4. How has God drawn near to you/or you near to Him.?

This Holiday season, when we focus on Loving All and Giving More, we will be supporting Riverview and Fircrest Elementary Schools. Between the two schools, there are 63 families to which we can show God's love.

We are being very specific in our giving this year—both schools indicated that there are some items always needed but rarely donated.

Those items are:

- Laundry Soap
- Toilet Paper
- Winco Gift Cards

We will be collecting your donations in the foyer through Sunday, December 15th.

Welcome to Advent Conspiracy!

[Worship Fully] It starts with Jesus. It ends with Jesus. This is the holistic approach God had in mind for Christmas. It's a season where we are called to put down our burdens and lift a song up to our God. It's a season where love wins, peace reigns, and a king is celebrated with each breath. It's the party of the year. Entering the story of advent means entering this season with an overwhelming passion to worship Jesus to the fullest.

[Spend Less] Before you think we're getting all Scrooge on you, let us explain what we mean. We like gifts. Our kids really like gifts. But consider this: America spends an average of $450 billion a year every Christmas. How often have you spent money on Christmas presents for no other reason than obligation? How many times have you received a gift out of that same obligation? Thanks, but no thanks, right? We're asking people to consider buying ONE LESS GIFT this Christmas. Just one. Sounds insignificant, yet many who have taken this small sacrifice have experienced something nothing less than a miracle: They have been more available to celebrate Christ during the advent season.

[Give More] God's gift to us was a relationship built on love. So it's no wonder why we're drawn to the idea that Christmas should be a time to love our friends and family in the most memorable ways possible. Time is the real gift Christmas offers us, and no matter how hard we look, it can't be found at the mall. Time to make a gift that turns into the next family heirloom. Time to write mom a letter. Time to take the kids sledding. Time to bake really good cookies and sing really bad Christmas carols. Time to make love visible through relational giving.

[Love All] When Jesus loved, He loved in ways never imagined. Though rich, He became poor to love the poor, the forgotten, the overlooked and the sick. He played to the margins. By spending less at Christmas we have the opportunity to join Him in giving resources to those who need help the most. As we as a community of faith continue to take hold of these simple steps in Advent Conspiracy we have been able to feed and help and support many individuals and families in our community. One less gift, unbelievable presence in the name of Christ.
