
Everyone faces greed at some time in his or her life. The antidote to greed is generosity.

1. Jesus is generous and people who follow Him will be as well. 2 Corinthians 9:15

2. Greed always brings about death.

Ask yourself three questions:

1. Is He first?

Genesis 2:15, Joshua 7:20-25, 1 Kings 3:4-5, Luke 12:13, 1 Corinthians 6:9-10, Ephesians 5:3-5, Colossians 3:5-6

2. Is what is important to Him important to me?

Acts 4, 5, 1 Corinthians 16:1-2

3. What adjustments do I need to make?

John 3:16

Turn a message into a conversation. Consider joining with a friend to review the message and dig deeper into God's word through the following questions.

What are some characteristics of greedy people?

What would you say is the opposite of being greedy?

Who do you know that models this well?

No one wants to be labeled as a greedy person, but the truth is we are all tempted by greed on a daily basis. Money is the number one thing competing with Jesus for our hearts.

What three things did Achan admit to doing in verse 21?

Achan saw something he wanted, he coveted, and he took it. Even though he wasn't in need, he still took. Greed affected him by taking away his happiness when he saw something he wanted.

Would you agree that we are usually happy with what we have until we see something we want?
