Food for Thought

For the week of December 27, 2015

BIBLE READING: Psalm 92:1-15

There are four significant aspects of thankfulness. Four elements of true thanksgiving are found in this song (psalm):

- (1) remembering what God has done,
- (2) telling others about it,
- (3) showing God's glory to others
- (4) offering gifts of self, time, and resources.

If you are truly thankful, your life will show it.

As 2015 comes to an end give an accounting of what you have sought God for in prayer, and how he has answered.

Make a list of prayers and petitions you continue to present to God. Pray with expectation pray:

- Specifically
- Persistently
- Faithfully

THE PURPOSE OF LIFE GROUPS

Winter session of Life Groups begins the week of January 24, 2016. Life Groups exist to promote spiritual maturity and personal growth through meaningful relationships with Jesus and each other through the study of God's Word (Romans 8:29 & Hebrews 10:24-25).

Here's how we accomplish this in our community:

SHARE

Each week we'll take time to share what is happening in our lives. At first this sharing will include planned "sharing questions." But after the first few weeks, it will become more informal and personal as we feel more comfortable.

STUDY

Each week we'll study a section from God's Word that relates to the previous weekend's sermon or an appropriate personal growth topic. Our goal is to learn how to live out our Christianity in everyday life.

SUPPORT

Each week we'll learn how to take care of one another as Christ commanded (John 15:9-13). This care can take many forms such as prayer, encouragement, listening, challenging one another and meeting real needs.

SERVE

Spiritual growth is fostered not only by what we gain through the support and input of others, but also through service to others. The role each of us fills is important to the health of the church and for us to be the hands and feet of Jesus to the community in which we live (Ephesians 4:11-16). Throughout the quarter, it is our hope that you can find and/or be affirmed in the ways God has designed you to serve and make a difference in God's kingdom.
